What were the special strong points of your course assistant?

1. He created a friendly environment to facilitate discussion, putting us at ease to share our uncertainties on themes
2. Very approachable, clear descriptions
3. Very good at running sections + explaining the material

4. He was very friendly and raised interesting points. Had good comments on papers.
5. Lawrence is very open to all sorts of ideas and questions, and did a great job of listening to students' questions and concerns. He is very good at leading discussions where students can be involved.
6. Good at explaining material, helpful w/ essays
7. good at explaining motivations for phil. positions and providing intuition behind certain claims
8. Humor, Marx Expertise
9. He did a really great job clarifying material from lecture.
10. Answering questions, written feedback. Clarifying confusions
11. He kept the conversation going when it began to lag.
12. explains Marx, Nietzsche, Hegel well on things that we didn't understand, good at making interesting points
13. Very knowledgeable about the material, good at answering specific questions
14. giving a richer context and description of the work
15. Explained materials, clearly had a good grasp on material, gives background/outside info
16. Lawrence is incredibly thoughtful and passionate about the material. He is patient w/ all of his students and makes students feel comfortable in participating
17. Very good at explaining different material in discussion, understanding of student's needs

What could your course assistant have done better? Suggestions?

1. Could have presented better overview/structure to philosophers, especially since we covered so many; when asked a Q about a term to allow us to place it in larger philosophical structure of the thinker.
2. Perhaps more personal takes on the course materials?
3. Grading comments were a bit skimpy, especially in a class where you can get an A- w/ no criticism
4. Lawrence could be more assertive in his own opinions! It was always good to hear his thoughts and comments on the texts.

5. Referenced more places in the text during discussion
6. Come w/ pre-selected questions.
7. Nothing ... maybe more specific feedback on essays.
8. Sometimes conversation lulled. Some more guidance could have helped
9. Kept students from hopping from one subject to the next too quickly.
10. flow of discussion sometimes, in middle of section
11. Could be better at leading discussion/asking questions for us to discuss, mostly relied on our questions
12. IDK
13. Gone over more concepts in discussion.
